

Disclaimer

The information on this website is not intended to diagnose or prescribe for any medical condition, nor does it claim to prevent, treat, mitigate or cure any such condition. For medical advice, consult with your professional health care provider. It remains important and is the responsibility of each individual to consult a physician when displaying symptoms of illness. Most physicians are skilled diagnosticians to prescribe treatment for illnesses, especially those of an acute nature.

Although many people, including physicians and scientists, globally testify that Frequency Healing has wonderful healing properties no legal claim can be made that Frequency Healing therapy and/or any Frequency Healing product is able to cure any disease per se. Other scientists may disagree with these findings.

No claims are made that Frequency Healing therapy and/or any Frequency Healing product is useful for any purpose other than researching the effects of Frequency Healing on pathogens and toxins within the human constitution and its perceived impact on the human physiology.

Alternative health measures assist with the prevention of illness or as an adjunct treatment to conventional therapy. It remains prudent that the physician is informed about the status of any additional therapy in the treatment of any perceived illness or disease.
